

Senior-level business application professional who has focused his Accounting acumen and Project Management skills for the past 20 years in implementing, optimizing and supporting the Oracle eBusiness Suite - Financial Applications. Area(s) of expertise include; evaluating and designing ERP solutions, project and program management, general accounting and reporting, fixed asset management, consolidations, and procure-to-pay processes. Proficient in all aspects of the Software Development Lifecycle (SDLC) with proven leadership on numerous full life-cycle implementations for mid-size to Fortune 500 clients in both the private and public-sector.